1. Introduction

Between March 8 and March 30, 2025, partners of the Erasmus+ project EcopreNEETs hosted teaser events across Europe to promote eco-entrepreneurship and present the project's results to NEETs, youth workers, educators, and stakeholders. Events were held in Greece, Hungary, France, the Netherlands, and Poland, reaching over 135 participants in total.

2. Teaser Event Highlights by Country

1) France (Ligue de l'Enseignement Nouvelle Aquitaine, Bordeaux)

Conducted on March 25 with 58 participants, this was the largest in-person event. Highlights included themed workshops, a roundtable with regional experts, and active networking. Over 73% said the event met their expectations, and 87% were ready to implement the tools in their work. The day ended with a proposal for continued collaboration via a June 2025 follow-up meeting.

2) Greece (Learning Seed, Argos)

Organized on March 8 with 35 participants, this event featured project presentations, MOOC and trainer results, and an incubation overview. The feedback was overwhelmingly positive, with participants praising the structure, speaker effectiveness, and practical applications. A high percentage reported increased understanding of eco-entrepreneurship and motivation to apply knowledge.

3) Hungary (Ecocenter Alapítvány, Kiskunfélegyháza)

Held on March 28 with 20 educators, the event included an interactive mini-workshop and presented all major outputs. Attendees expressed strong interest in using the training materials in their own institutions, creating a collaborative and inspiring atmosphere.

4) Netherlands (ATERMON, Online)

A virtual event on March 28 with 11 attendees, focusing on the MOOC, incubation results, and online tools like the Game. The format enabled participation from remote stakeholders and offered insights into fostering partnerships and scaling project impacts. Feedback was highly appreciative of the project's digital approach.

5) Poland (DIGICULT, Online)

Held on March 28 via Google Meet with 14 participants, this event emphasized the Polish-language MOOC and platform usability. All aspects of the event were rated Excellent, and 100% of attendees felt motivated and satisfied. Most identified "lack of opportunities" as a key challenge for eco-entrepreneurship.

3. Common Findings and Impact

The EcopreNEETs teaser events, implemented across five countries with diverse audiences, consistently demonstrated the value and relevance of the project. Despite variations in setting—ranging from in-person meetings in schools and community centres to online formats—the outcomes reveal a unified and enthusiastic reception from participants.

High Satisfaction Across the Board

Participants across all events rated the organization, clarity, and content of the sessions as either "Good" or "Excellent." From logistical execution to speaker performance, each event created a professional, yet welcoming, atmosphere that supported learning and dialogue. In Poland and Hungary, educators particularly noted the seamless flow of the presentations and the clarity of project objectives. In France, participants appreciated the interactive and practical approach of the workshops.

Strong Appreciation for Practical Tools

The MOOC platform, training materials, and incubation model were some of the most praised components. Attendees valued the accessibility and user-friendliness of these resources, which many planned to adopt in their own work. Youth workers in Greece and France commented on the MOOC's relevance for building competencies among NEETs, while Dutch and Polish participants highlighted the utility of digital tools like the online Game in keeping young learners engaged.

Motivation and Empowerment

A recurring theme was the increased motivation to apply knowledge and the inspiration participants felt after attending the events. In all five countries, respondents indicated that the teaser event not only increased their understanding of eco-entrepreneurship but also encouraged them to act. Many NEETs expressed interest in exploring green business ideas, and stakeholders felt more equipped to support such initiatives. In France, 87% of attendees confirmed they would use the tools in their professional environments.

Common Challenges Identified

While the events were uplifting, participants also voiced realistic concerns. The most frequently cited barriers to implementing eco-entrepreneurial ideas included:

- Lack of funding or financial support
- Limited access to training or mentorship
- Insufficient opportunities or platforms for young entrepreneurs to launch their ideas

These insights point to the necessity of further support mechanisms and partnerships that can help bridge the gap between knowledge and action.

Momentum for Future Collaboration

Encouragingly, there was strong interest in continuing the conversation and building future initiatives. France has already proposed an online follow-up meeting in June 2025 to maintain engagement and explore new project ideas. Other partners expressed readiness to stay connected, collaborate on sustainability-focused activities, and share outcomes at regional or European forums.

In summary, the EcopreNEETs teaser events achieved their objective of raising awareness, engaging key audiences, and laying the groundwork for future action in the field of green entrepreneurship for NEETs.

2. Description

On the 8th of March 2025, Learning Seed, with the valued support of the organisation Woman Community, successfully organised a teaser event for the Erasmus+ project EcopreNEETs at the Labour Centre in Argos, Argolis. Aimed at engaging NEETs (Not in Education, Employment, or Training), youth workers, stakeholders, and members of the wider public, the event brought together 35 participants who showed strong interest in eco-entrepreneurship and innovative learning methods. The event created a dynamic space for networking, inspiration, and the exchange of ideas around sustainability and youth empowerment.

The event opened with an introduction to Learning Seed's mission, followed by a detailed overview of the EcopreNEETs project—its goals, structure, and intended impact. Attendees were particularly engaged during the presentation of the MOOC platform, which offers accessible online training in green entrepreneurship. Many participants expressed appreciation for the practical nature of the tools presented. One youth worker noted, "The MOOC platform is not only informative but really easy to navigate. I see it as a great resource for the young people I work with." The session on the "Train the Trainers" initiative also sparked interest, especially among educators and community leaders seeking to better support NEETs through structured, meaningful educational frameworks.

During the final portion of the event, the presentation of the EcopreNEETs Incubation programme and a roundtable discussion on eco-entrepreneurship created a space for insightful dialogue. Several NEET participants expressed how the stories shared during the roundtable gave them a clearer vision of their potential career paths. "Hearing from real people who started green businesses gave me confidence that I could try something similar," one participant shared. The event concluded with closing speeches emphasizing the project's long-term benefits and encouraging ongoing collaboration among local actors. Overall, the feedback was overwhelmingly positive, with many attendees expressing eagerness to stay involved in the project's next phases.

Materiały te służą podzieleniu się z innymi – nie tylko podzieleniu się wiedzą naszego projektu, ale także mają na celu inspirowanie, edukowanie i informowanie szerszej publiczności. Niezależnie od tego, czy jesteś innym badaczem, nauczycielem, decyzyjnym politycznym, czy po prostu osobą zainteresowaną tematem, nasze materiały upowszechniające mają na celu wywołanie znaczących dyskusji i stymulowanie pozytywnych zmian.

Zapraszamy do zagłębienia się w to bogate repozytorium, nauki i przyłączenia się do nas, miłej współpracy i zwiększania zrozumienia międzykulturowego poprzez program Erasmus!

The slide content includes a paragraph about the project's goal to create a network of digital literacy trainers and a list of participants. Below the text, there are two icons: "Biuletyn informacyjny" (Information Bulletin) and "Infografika" (Infographic). On the right side of the Zoom window, a grid of participant avatars is shown, each with a letter (E, J, K, M, N, P, S, R, W).
